CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

NBC STUDIOS, LLC; et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

DISH NETWORK CORPORATION, et al.

Defendants.

Case No. CV12-04536-DMG-SH

AMENDED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 WHEREAS, the Court has reviewed the parties' Stipulated Protective Order 2 dated June __, 2014, and GOOD CAUSE appearing therefor,

3 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

4 1. As used in this Order, "Litigation Material(s)" includes: (a) 5 documents, exhibits, answers to interrogatories, responses to requests for 6 admissions, deposition testimony and transcriptions (including exhibits), and all 7 written, recorded, graphic or electronically-stored matters (and all identical and 8 non-identical copies thereof); (b) any copies, notes, abstracts or summaries of such 9 information, and the information itself; and (c) any pleading, affidavit, declaration, 10 brief, motion, transcript, including exhibits to any of these, or other writing 11 containing such information.

12 2. Litigation Materials containing proprietary information, including 13 pricing, rates, customers/subscribers, company security matters, customer lists, 14 financial data and other non-public commercial, financial, research or technical 15 information, may be designated "Confidential" by any producing party or non-16 party. Litigation Materials containing trade secrets, special formulas, proprietary 17 software and/or computer programs, current or future marketing plans, current or 18 future business plans or strategies, current or future plans for products or services, 19 customer and subscriber data and information, agreements with third parties, 20 information regarding current or future business or financial transactions, internal 21 financial reports or plans, current or future pricing, rates or planning information, 22 financial data, production data, internal notes, memoranda, logs or other data, and 23 other highly sensitive non-public commercial, financial, research or technical 24 information that the producing party or non-party believes, in good faith, should be 25 afforded the highest level of confidentiality by the Court, may be designated 26 "Highly Confidential" by any producing party or non-party.

27 3. All Litigation Materials provided (before or after entry of this Order) 28 in discovery in connection with the above-captioned litigation ("this litigation"),

1 and the contents thereof: shall be used or disclosed by the parties, their counsel, or 2 anyone else provided with Litigation Materials pursuant to the terms of this order, 3 solely for the purpose of the prosecution or defense of this litigation and or the 4 related cases pending in this district (Case Nos. 12-cv-04529 and 12-cv-4551) and 5 the Southern District of New York (12-cv-4155) , including preparing for and 6 conducting pre-trial, trial and post-trial proceedings in this litigation, and for no 7 other purpose; shall not be used or disclosed for any business, commercial or 8 competitive purpose; and shall not be used or disclosed in connection with any 9 other litigation or proceeding. In addition, Litigation Materials designated 10 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential,” and the contents thereof, shall not be 11 disclosed other than as provided by the terms of this Order.

12 4. Any Litigation Materials that the producing party or non-party has 13 properly made available to the general public prior to their production in this 14 litigation or during the course of this litigation shall not be designated 15 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.”

16 5. Nothing in this Order affects the right of the party or non-party that 17 produced Litigation Materials to use or disclose any Litigation Materials, or the 18 contents thereof, in any way.

19 6. (a) (i) Any party or non-party may designate Litigation Materials, or 20 portions thereof, which are considered confidential or highly confidential by 21 marking them “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential.” In order to provide the 22 parties adequate opportunity to designate Litigation Materials as “Confidential” or 23 “Highly Confidential,” all Litigation Materials produced in this case shall be 24 deemed “Highly Confidential,” whether or not stamped with that legend, for a 25 period of fifteen (15) business days following production, unless the Litigation 26 Materials are within the scope of paragraph 4 of this Order.

27 (ii) The failure to designate Litigation Materials as “Confidential” or 28 “Highly Confidential” within that fifteen (15) business day period shall not waive a

1 party's or non-party's right to later designate such Litigation Materials as 2 "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" with prospective effect. If Litigation
3 Materials claimed to be "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" are produced 4 without that designation, such Litigation Materials and all copies thereof shall 5 within five (5) days of any written notice requesting their return, be returned to the 6 designating person for such designation, destroyed, or stamped "Confidential" or 7 "Highly Confidential," as requested by the designating person. The receiving party 8 may challenge the designation of the documents as provided in this Order, but the 9 inadvertent production of Litigation Materials (including, without limitation, 10 testimony) claimed to be "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" without the 11 designation shall not constitute a waiver of confidentiality.

12 (b) For deposition testimony, counsel may invoke the protections of 13 this Order by stating on the record during the deposition that testimony given at the 14 deposition is designated "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," or by designating 15 the deposition transcript or portions thereof as "Confidential" or "Highly 16 Confidential" within fifteen (15) business days after that counsel has received the 17 final deposition transcript from opposing counsel. All information disclosed during 18 a deposition shall be deemed "Highly Confidential" until the expiration of such 19 fifteen (15) business day period as to counsel for all parties, whether or not any 20 portion of the transcript has been so designated previously and thereafter shall 21 remain "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential," as applicable, if so designated. No 22 person shall be present during any portion of any deposition designated at the 23 deposition as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" or any portion of any 24 deposition wherein "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials 25 are disclosed, unless that person is an authorized recipient of Litigation Materials 26 containing such confidential or highly confidential information under the terms of 27 this Order.

28 7. The party or non-party designating any Litigation Materials as 1 Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” shall, in the first instance, determine in 2 good faith whether it constitutes “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” 3 information covered by this Order. Another party may object in good faith to such 4 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” designation. The objecting party and the 5 other person(s) involved shall follow the provisions of Local Rule 37-1, et seq. of 6 the Central District of California in (a) their attempt to informally resolve their 7 designation dispute and (b) any motion practice before this Court should such 8 dispute not be resolved informally. Any Litigation Materials, the designation of 9 which are subject to such dispute, shall be treated as designated pending further 10 order of the Court. The person asserting the confidentiality of any such Litigation 11 Materials shall bear the burden of establishing that the Litigation Materials are 12 entitled to be classified as designated.

13 8. If any Litigation Materials designated “Confidential” or “Highly 14 Confidential” pursuant to this Order are used during the course of a deposition, the 15 portion of the deposition record reflecting such “Confidential” or “Highly 16 Confidential” information shall be designated as “Confidential” or “Highly 17 Confidential,” and access thereto shall be limited pursuant to the terms of this 18 Order.

19 9. Litigation Materials designated or treated as “Confidential,” copies or 20 extracts therefrom and the information contained therein, may be disclosed, given, 21 shown, made available, or communicated to only the following (and then only for 22 purposes of the prosecution, defense or appeal of this litigation):

- 23 a. employees of the parties provided that they are deposition or trial 24 witnesses or are otherwise actively involved in the prosecution, 25 defense or appeal of this litigation and have executed the attached 26 Schedule A;
- 27 b. outside counsel retained by the parties to assist in the prosecution, 28 defense or appeal of this litigation, including employees of such counsel's firms, and any companies, independent contractors or other litigation support service personnel with whom such counsel works in connection with this litigation;

c. in-house counsel for the parties (and their paralegal, clerical and/or secretarial assistants) who are actively involved in the prosecution, defense or appeal of this litigation;

d. consultants and/or experts retained by counsel or a party in connection with this litigation to whom it is necessary that "Confidential" Litigation Materials be shown for the sole purpose of assisting in, or consulting with respect to, this litigation, and only upon their agreement to be bound by this Protective Order evidenced by execution of the attached Schedule A;

e. any person expressly identified in any "Confidential" Litigation Materials as an author, a recipient, or having knowledge of the "Confidential" Litigation Materials, and any person for whom a reasonable foundation may be laid that he or she is an author, a recipient, or has knowledge of the "Confidential" Litigation Materials;

f. any person employed by the party that produced the "Confidential" Litigation Materials;

g. the Court in this litigation, and any members of its staff to whom it is necessary to disclose Confidential Litigation Materials for the purpose of assisting the Court in this litigation.

h. stenographers, videographers and court reporters recording or transcribing testimony relating to this litigation and who have executed the attached Schedule A;

i. other persons only upon written consent of the producing person (which agreement may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript) or upon order of the Court after affording the producing person due

1 notice and an opportunity to be heard.

2 10. Litigation Materials designated or treated as "Highly Confidential," 3 copies or extracts therefrom and the information contained therein, shall be treated 4 as "Attorneys' Eyes Only" and may be disclosed, given, shown, made available, or 5 communicated to only the following (and then only for purposes of the prosecution, 6 defense or appeal of this litigation):

- 7 a. outside counsel retained by the parties to assist in the prosecution,
8 defense or appeal of this litigation, including employees of such 9 counsel's firms, and any companies, independent contractors or other 10 litigation support service personnel with whom such counsel works in 11 connection with this litigation;
- 12 b. up to four (4) in house counsel who are actively involved in the 13 prosecution, defense or appeal of this litigation and have executed the 14 attached Schedule A, but who are not involved in any business 15 negotiations regarding programming, affiliation, content licensing or 16 retransmission agreements;
- 17 c. consultants and/or experts retained by counsel or a party in connection 18 with this litigation to whom it is necessary that "Highly Confidential" 19 Litigation materials be shown for the sole purpose of assisting in, or 20 consulting with respect to, this litigation, and only upon their 21 agreement to be bound by this Protective Order evidenced by 22 execution of the attached Schedule A;
- 23 d. any person expressly identified in any "Highly Confidential" 24 Litigation Materials as an author, a recipient, or having knowledge of 25 the "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials, and any person for 26 whom a reasonable foundation may be laid that he or she is an author, 27 a recipient, or has knowledge of the "Highly Confidential" Litigation 28 Materials;

- 1 e. any person employed by the party that produced the “Highly 2 Confidential” Litigation Materials;
- 3 f. the Court, and any members of its staff to whom it is necessary to 4 disclose “Highly Confidential” Litigation Materials for the purpose of 5 assisting the Court in this litigation;
- 6 g. stenographers, videographers and court reporters recording or 7 transcribing testimony relating to this litigation who have executed the 8 attached Schedule A;
- 9 h. other persons only upon written consent of the producing person
10 (which agreement may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript)
11 or upon order of the Court after affording the producing person due
12 notice and an opportunity to be heard.

13 11. Source Code. Each party may designate documents, information, or 14 things as “Highly Confidential Source Code Information,” which means Source 15 Code, as that term is defined below, which is to be protected in the same manner as 16 what is set forth in this Order, subject to additional protections provided below.

17 A. Source Code means human-readable programming language text 18 that defines software, firmware, or electronic hardware descriptions and/or 19 instructions (hereinafter referred to as “Source Code”). Source Code includes, 20 without limitation, computer code, scripts, assembly, object code, Source Code 21 listings and descriptions of Source Code, object code listings and descriptions of 22 object code, formulas, engineering specifications, or schematics that define or 23 otherwise describe in detail the algorithms or structure of software. Source Code 24 documents at least include (1) printed documents that contain or refer to selected 25 Source Code, components (“printed Source Code”); (2) electronic communications 26 and descriptive documents, such as emails, design documents and programming 27 examples, which contain or refer to selected Source Code components (“described 28 Source Code”); (3) electronic Source Code documents that reside in a Source Code

1 repository from which software and related data files may be compiled, assembled, 2 linked, executed, debugged and/or tested (“Source Code files”); and (4) transcripts, 3 reports, video, audio, or other media that include, quote, cite, describe, or otherwise 4 refer to Source Code, Source Code files, and/or the development thereof. Source 5 Code files include, but are not limited to documents containing Source Code in 6 “C”, “C++”, Java, Java scripting languages, assembler languages, command 7 languages and shell languages. Source Code files may further include “header 8 files,” “make” files, project files, link files, and other human-readable text files 9 used in the generation, compilation, translation, and/or building of executable 10 software, including software intended for execution by an interpreter. The 11 definitions of “Source Code,” “printed Source Code,” “described Source Code” and 12 “Source Code files” do not include documents or information that merely describe 13 the functionality of a device, service or feature (e.g., the Hopper, PrimeTime 14 Anytime, Auto Hop or Sling Adapter). However, these definitions are meant to 15 include documents or information that reveal how Source Code effectuates or 16 accomplishes the functionality of a device, service, or feature.

17 B. Documents and things produced during the course of this 18 litigation designated as “Highly Confidential Source Code Information” shall be 19 protected in accordance with the “Highly Confidential” designation provided in this 20 Order, and are also subject to the additional protections in this paragraph 11.
21 Nothing in this Order shall obligate the parties to produce any Source Code nor act 22 as an admission that any particular Source Code is discoverable.

23 C. The producing party may redact any Source Code that may be 24 contained in a document with a mix of other information and may then produce the 25 redacted document in the same manner as any other document covered by this 26 Protective Order.

27 D. The producing party shall produce Source Code files by making 28 them available electronically on a stand-alone, non-networked computer without 1 Internet access provided by the producing party (“the Source Code Computer”).

2 The Source Code Computer provided by the producing party shall run a reasonably 3 current version of a mutually agreed upon operating system such as Apple OS X, 4 Microsoft Windows or Linux. Source Code files must be produced as they are 5 stored in the ordinary course of business. The Source Code Computer shall be 6 produced, stored, and secured at the Los Angeles offices of the producing party’s 7 outside counsel or such other appropriately secure facility as is mutually agreed 8 upon by the parties (termed “the designated facility”).

9 E. Such materials shall be made available for inspection only by 10 the following persons to whom disclosure is authorized pursuant to this Protective 11 Order:

12 i. Approved experts and consultants for the receiving party 13 who have executed the attached Schedule A;

14 ii. Approved outside counsel for the receiving party who 15 have executed the attached Schedule A;

16 The names and curriculum vitae of any experts, consultants and outside 17 counsel for the receiving party whom the receiving party seeks to designate to 18 inspect source code must be provided to the producing party at least four business 19 days prior to the time of inspection by such individual (for expedited discovery, this 20 shall be two business days). The producing party shall have three business days to 21 object to inspection of source code by a particular individual (for expedited 22 discovery, this shall be one business day). Such objection must be for good cause, 23 stating with particularity the reasons for the objection, and must be in writing.
24 Failure to object within three business days shall constitute approval (for expedited 25 discovery, this shall be one business day). If the parties are unable to resolve 26 objections, application may be made to the Court to resolve the matter. No more 27 than a total of 10 individuals identified by the receiving party shall have access to 28 the Source Code Computer.

1 F. Source Code shall be made available for inspection and, if 2 necessary, production with the following additional protections:

3 i. The producing party shall produce Source Code files as 4 they are stored in the ordinary course of business and shall deliver one copy of the 5 Source Code files to the designated facility for review on the Source Code 6 Computer. For sake of clarity, the producing party may provide the Source Code 7 files in read-only form. To the extent a party considers production of specifically 8 identified Source Code files in executable form necessary, the parties shall meet 9 and confer.

10 ii. The Source Code Computer shall be made available from 11 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. local time, Monday through Friday (excluding federal holidays) on 12 the business days for which a reasonable request for inspection has been made. The 13 receiving party must provide at least one week's notice (two business days for 14 expedited discovery) to the producing party prior to reviewing the Source Code 15 Computer for the first time and one business day's notice before reviewing the 16 Source Code Computer on any non-consecutive business day thereafter.

17 iii. Proper identification of all approved individuals shall be 18 provided prior to any access to the secure room at the designated facility or the 19 Source Code Computer. Proper identification requires showing, at a minimum, a 20 photo identification card sanctioned by the government of any State of the United 21 States, by the government of the United States, or by the nation state of the 22 authorized person's current citizenship.

23 iv. The producing party shall install tools that are sufficient 24 for viewing and searching the code produced, on the platform produced, if such 25 tools exist and are presently used in the ordinary course of the producing party's 26 business. The receiving party may request that commercially available software 27 tools for viewing and searching Source Code be installed on the Source Code 28 Computer, provided, however, that such other software tools are reasonably

1 necessary for the receiving party to perform its review of the Source Code 2 consistent with all of the protections herein. Specific tools may include, but are not 3 limited to multi-file text search tools such as “grep”, dtSearch, Understand for Java, 4 Understand for C, Visual Slick Edit, Source-Navigator, PowerGrep and 5 ExamDiffPro or similar programs. Where executable Source Code is installed on 6 the Source Code Computer, the receiving party shall be entitled to install and use 7 appropriate compilers, debuggers and text editors so long as the receiving party 8 agrees that no edits may be performed on the Highly Confidential Source Code 9 Information. The receiving party must provide the producing party with the CD or 10 DVD containing such licensed software tool(s) at least ten (10) days in advance of 11 the date upon which the receiving party wishes to have the additional software tools 12 available for use on the Source Code Computer (four business days for expedited 13 discovery).

14 v. The producing party shall make available a laser printer 15 with commercially reasonable printing speeds for on-site printing during inspection 16 of the Source Code. Source Code may only be printed on watermarked pre-Bates 17 numbered paper, which shall be provided by the producing party. Upon printing 18 any such portions of Source Code, the printed pages shall be collected by the 19 producing party. The producing party shall Bates number and label with “Highly 20 Confidential Source Code Information” any pages printed by the receiving party 21 and deliver them to the receiving party or object within three business days of their 22 receipt.

23 vi. The receiving party may print portions of the Source 24 Code only when reasonably necessary to prepare court filings or pleadings or other 25 papers (including a testifying expert’s expert report or for use as deposition 26 exhibits). The receiving party shall not print Source Code in order to review blocks 27 of Source Code elsewhere in the first instance, i.e., as an alternative to reviewing 28 that Source Code electronically on the Source Code Computers. Printed portions

1 that exceed 50 continuous pages or 10% or more of a specific software release 2 (operating systems and applications) shall be presumed excessive and not done for 3 a permitted purpose. If, after meeting and conferring, the producing party and the 4 receiving party cannot resolve the objection, the producing party shall be entitled to 5 seek a resolution from the Court of whether the printed Source Code in question is 6 narrowly tailored and was printed for a permitted purpose. The burden shall be on 7 the receiving party to demonstrate that such printed portions are no more than is 8 reasonably necessary for a permitted purpose and not merely printed for the 9 purposes of review and analysis elsewhere.

10 vii. The printed pages shall constitute part of the Source Code 11 produced by the producing party in this action. Only those consultants, experts and 12 outside attorneys who have been approved to inspect source code, and who have 13 executed the attached Schedule A, may have access to the printed pages. Each 14 consultant, expert, or outside attorney will record on a log every page of Source 15 Code that has been printed (“print logs”). Print logs should be secured in a locked 16 and secure room when not in use.

17 viii. Any external storage media containing Source Code shall 18 be disconnected from and/or removed from its Source Code Computer and stored in 19 a locked room, safe or storage cabinet when it is not actually being accessed.

20 ix. The Source Code Computer and the safe or storage 21 cabinet must be kept in a locked and secure room (the “Source Code Review 22 Room”).

23 x. No recordable media or recordable devices, including 24 without limitation sound recorders, computers, cellular telephones, PDAs, 25 peripheral equipment, cameras, CDs, DVDs, or drives of any kind, shall be 26 permitted into the Source Code Review Room. The receiving party’s outside 27 counsel and/or experts shall be entitled to take notes relating to the Source Code but 28 may not copy the Source Code into the notes and may not take such notes

1 electronically on the Source Code Computer itself or any other computer. No 2 copies of all or any portion of the Source Code may leave the room in which the 3 Source Code is inspected except as otherwise provided herein. Further, no other 4 written or electronic record of the Source Code is permitted except as otherwise 5 provided herein. A phone shall be made available in the secure room.

6 xi. The producing party may monitor the activities of the 7 receiving party's representatives during any Source Code review, but only to ensure 8 that no unauthorized electronic records of the Source Code and that no information 9 concerning the Source Code are being created or transmitted in any way. Such 10 monitor shall not remain in the Source Code Review Room and shall not be able to 11 listen to any activity taking place in the Source Code Review Room. No video may 12 be made of any activity taking place in the Source Code Review Room, nor shall 13 the monitor be permitted to report on any activities therein other than as may relate 14 to the above-referenced purpose of the monitoring.

15 xii. Unless otherwise agreed in advance by the parties in 16 writing, at the conclusion of each day of Source Code inspection, the receiving 17 party shall remove all notes, documents and all other materials from the room that 18 may contain work product and/or attorney-client privileged information. The 19 producing party shall not be responsible for any items left in the room following 20 any inspection session, nor shall the presence of such materials bar the producing 21 party from entering or using the inspection room.

22 xiii. Except as specifically permitted in this Paragraph 11, the 23 receiving party will not copy, remove, or otherwise transfer any Source Code from 24 the Source Code Computer including, without limitation, copying, removing, or 25 transferring the Source Code onto any recordable media or recordable device. The 26 receiving party will not transmit any Source Code in any way from the producing 27 party's facilities or the offices of its outside counsel of record.

28 ///

1 iv. The Source Code Computer and/or external storage media 2 used to store the Source Code shall be password protected and, at the option of the 3 producing party, further protected using PGP or comparable encryption.

4 xv. No electronic copies of Source Code shall be made 5 (including by way of example only, the receiving party may not scan the Source 6 Code to a PDF or photograph the code), other than volatile copies necessarily made 7 in the course of loading, accessing, compiling, modeling and/or executing the 8 Source Code or running data processing systems that use or incorporate the Source 9 Code on the Source Code Computer. Images or copies of Source Code shall not be 10 included in correspondence between the parties (references to production numbers 11 shall be used instead), and shall be omitted from pleadings and other papers 12 whenever possible. If a party reasonably believes that it needs to submit a portion 13 of the Source Code as part of a filing with the Court, the parties shall meet and 14 confer as to how to make such a filing while protecting the confidentiality of the 15 Highly Confidential Source Code and such filing will not be made absent 16 agreement from the producing party that the confidentiality protections will be 17 adequate.

18 xvi. The receiving party's outside counsel of record may make 19 no more than five (5) additional paper copies of any portions of the Source Code 20 received from a producing party, not including copies attached to court filings or 21 used at depositions, and shall maintain a log of all paper copies of the Source Code 22 received from a producing party that are delivered by the receiving party to any 23 approved individual. The log shall include the names of the reviewers and/or 24 recipients of paper copies and locations where the paper copies are stored. Upon 25 reasonable notice to the receiving party by the producing party, the receiving party 26 shall provide a copy of this log to the producing party.

27 xvii. Copies of Source Code that are marked as deposition 28 exhibits shall not be provided to the court reporter or attached to deposition

1 transcripts; rather, the deposition record will identify the exhibit by its production 2 numbers. All paper copies of Source Code brought to a deposition shall be securely 3 destroyed in a timely manner following the deposition.

4 xviii. Any printed pages of Source Code shall be stored in a 5 locked safe or storage cabinet when not actually in use.

6 xix. The receiving party shall maintain a log of all individuals 7 who have accessed the Source Code Computer. The log shall be made available to 8 the producing party upon reasonable request. The log shall include the name of 9 each person who accessed the Source Code Computer. Such log and any 10 information from it shall be inadmissible in this litigation except in connection with 11 proceedings before the Court regarding any alleged violations of this Protective 12 Order.

13 At the end of this action (including any related appeals), any entity receiving 14 Source Code will certify that: (a) all printed copies of Source Code have been 15 returned, with the exception of exhibits that were attached to filed pleadings or 16 admitted into evidence; (b) any electronic storage or memory media that may 17 contain Source Code has been returned, fully reformatted, and/or destroyed; and (c) 18 any access logs maintained by counsel have been archived along with counsel's 19 other records from this litigation. Other than set forth in this subparagraph, counsel 20 may not maintain a file copy of Source Code material.

21 12. Nothing in this Order shall allow non-testifying experts and 22 consultants to be deposed or otherwise be the subject of discovery other than as 23 provided under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

24 13. (a) Nothing in this Order shall prevent or otherwise restrict counsel 25 from rendering advice to their clients and, in the course thereof, relying generally 26 on "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials; provided, that in 27 rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such client, counsel shall 28 not make any disclosure of the specific substance of Litigation Materials so

1 designated except as otherwise allowed in this Order.

2 (b) If, at any time, any Litigation Materials in the possession, custody or 3 control of any person other than the person who originally produced such Litigation 4 Materials are subpoenaed or requested by any court, administrative agency, 5 legislative body or other person or entity, the person to whom the subpoena or 6 request is directed shall immediately provide written notice to each person who 7 originally produced such Litigation Materials or designated them "Confidential" or 8 "Highly Confidential," and the person to whom the subpoena or request is directed 9 shall not take an adverse position to such producing or designating person(s) who 10 oppose the subpoena or request for such Litigation Materials.

11 14. Except as agreed to in writing by counsel of record or as ordered by 12 the Court, Litigation Materials designated or treated as "Confidential" or "Highly 13 Confidential" shall be submitted and/or filed under seal in accordance with Local 14 Rule 79-5.

15 15. Nothing herein shall prevent any of the parties from using 16 "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials in any trial in this 17 litigation or from seeking further protection with respect to the use of any 18 "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials in any trial in this 19 litigation. Means to preserve the confidentiality of Litigation Materials presented at 20 any trial of this matter shall be considered and implemented prior to the beginning 21 of such trial. "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" Litigation Materials that are 22 not received into evidence at trial shall retain their "Confidential" or "Highly 23 Confidential" status under this Order.

24 16. The terms of this Order shall apply to all manner and means of 25 discovery. The provisions of this Order may be modified at any time by stipulation 26 of the parties, approved by order of the Court. In addition, a party may at any time 27 apply to the Court for modification of this Order. Nothing in this Order shall 28 constitute (a) any agreement to produce in discovery any testimony, document or

1 other information; (b) a waiver of any right to object to or seek a further protective 2 order with respect to any discovery or other matter in this or any other litigation; or 3 (c) a waiver of any claim or immunity, protection, or privilege with respect to any 4 testimony, document or information.

5 17. In the event that Litigation Materials designated or treated as 6 “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” are disclosed to someone not authorized to 7 receive such information under this Order, counsel of record for the party making 8 that disclosure shall, promptly upon learning of such disclosure, give notice to 9 counsel of record for the designating person and to counsel of record for the 10 producing person (if different), and shall describe the circumstances surrounding 11 the unauthorized disclosure.

12 18. If any person inadvertently produces in discovery any information 13 subject to attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine or any other privilege, 14 protection, or immunity, and the requirements of Federal Rule of Evidence 502(b) 15 have been satisfied, the producing person may (promptly upon learning of such 16 production) notify the receiving party(ies) of such production and seek the return 17 and/or destruction of such information as set forth below. Upon such notification: 18 the receiving party(ies) shall promptly return to the producing person or shall 19 destroy all such information (including, without limitation, all originals and copies 20 of any documents containing or comprising such information); the information 21 (including, without limitation, all originals and copies of any documents containing 22 or comprising such information) shall continue to be privileged, protected, and/or 23 immune; and no use shall be made of such information (including, without 24 limitation, all originals and copies of any documents containing or comprising such 25 information) by the receiving party(ies), nor shall it be disclosed to anyone by the 26 receiving party(ies). The receiving party(ies) shall promptly provide to the 27 producing person a written certification of the complete return or destruction of 28 such information (including, without limitation, all originals and copies of any

1 documents containing or comprising such information); provided that, to the extent 2 any receiving party has incorporated any such information in its own work product, 3 it may (instead of providing such work product to the producing person) destroy 4 such information incorporated in that work product and promptly certify to such 5 destruction. Nothing herein, however, shall preclude the receiving party(ies) from 6 subsequently challenging that such materials are privileged, or that any such 7 privilege has not been waived.

8 19. Upon termination of this litigation and the request of the producing 9 person, the originals and all copies, whether exact copies or compilations, digests or 10 non-exact copies in any form, of Litigation Materials shall, within thirty (30) days, 11 be returned to the person who produced such Litigation Materials (with the 12 resulting shipping expense to be paid by the producing person), or shall be 13 destroyed (together with a written certification of the complete destruction of the 14 Litigation Materials), or shall otherwise be disposed as may be mutually agreeable 15 among the applicable persons. The obligation to return/destroy Confidential (as 16 opposed to Highly Confidential) materials shall be limited to reasonable efforts.
17 Nevertheless, counsel of record may retain their file copies of all court filings, 18 official transcripts and exhibits, provided that counsel continues to treat all 19 Litigation Materials in the manner provided in this Order. Notwithstanding the 20 provisions of this paragraph, inaccessible copies of confidential or proprietary 21 material, including electronic copies created through the routine operation of the 22 recipient(s)' standard archival and backup procedures, do not need to be returned or 23 destroyed.

24 20. This Order shall remain in force and effect until modified, superseded 25 or terminated by agreement of the parties hereto or by order of the Court. The 26 termination of this action shall not relieve the parties from complying with any 27 limitations imposed by this Order, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce 28 this Order.

1 21. The entry of this Order does not prevent either party from seeking a 2 further order of this Court pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil 3 Procedure.

4 22. During the course of the litigation, the parties may designate, upon 5 prior written consent of the requesting party, certain Litigation Materials as 6 “Outside Litigation Counsel Only.” To the extent Paragraphs 3, 4, 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, 7 15, 17 and 19 refer to “Confidential” and “Highly Confidential” materials, they 8 shall also cross-reference and include “Outside Litigation Counsel Only” materials.
9 Litigation Material designated as “Outside Litigation Counsel Only,” including 10 copies or extracts therefrom, may be disclosed, given, shown, made available, or 11 communicated to only the following (and then only for purposes of the prosecution, 12 defense or appeal of this litigation):

- 13 a. outside counsel retained by the parties to assist in the prosecution,
14 defense or appeal of this litigation, including employees of such 15 counsel’s firms, and any companies, independent contractors or other 16 litigation support service personnel with whom such counsel works in 17 connection with this litigation (“Outside Litigation Counsel”), subject 18 to any further restrictions on Outside Litigation Counsel access agreed 19 upon by the parties that may provide, for example, that there is a 20 particular class of Outside Litigation Counsel to whom the Litigation 21 Materials shall not be disclosed;
- 22 b. consultants and/or experts retained by outside counsel in connection 23 with this litigation to whom it is necessary that “Outside Litigation 24 Counsel Only” Litigation Materials be shown for the sole purpose of 25 assisting in, or consulting with respect to, this litigation, and only upon 26 their agreement to be bound by this Protective Order evidenced by 27 execution of the attached Schedule A (“Outside Litigation 28 Consultants/Experts”), subject to any further restrictions agreed upon

1 by the parties that may provide that there is a particular class of 2 Outside Litigation Consultants/Experts to whom the Litigation
3 Materials shall not be disclosed;

4 c. the Court, and any members of its staff to whom it is necessary to 5 disclose "Outside Litigation Counsel Only" Litigation Materials for 6 the purpose of assisting the Court in this litigation;

7 d. stenographers, videographers and court reports recording or 8 transcribing testimony relating to this litigation who have executed the 9 attached Schedule A;

10 e. other persons only upon written consent of the producing person
11 (which agreement may be recorded in a deposition or other transcript)
12 or upon order of the Court after affording the producing person due
13 notice and an opportunity to be heard.

14 23. The parties hereto agree that they will act in accordance with the terms 15 and conditions of this Order upon its execution by both parties even though it may 16 not yet have been so-ordered and entered by the Court.

17 24. This Order shall govern all discovery undertaken in this action.
